

I am concerned about the use of digital broadcast flags. It appears to me that such flags would unduly restrict the fair use rights of end users in ways that are commonly accepted today.